

[STREET SEEN]

Patterned Thoughts

COLORFUL, KALEIDOSCOPIC PRINTS and feminine ruffles were the biggest trends seen in Aspen this summer. It's understandable why women adore such dresses: They create visual interest, adding color, contrast, and dimension to a look. More important, they're just plain fun. When wearing one, accessories are best kept simple—overly chunky or ornate jewelry will compete with the dress for attention. As for footwear, they work great with wedged sandals, which add height and further elevate the ensemble's femininity.

—Andrea Maria Sims